

Becoming a World Power

Name: _____

Section 3, Activity 11

World War I: The Homefront

Look and listen for the answers to the questions below as you view the video presentation.

1. More than _____ women sustained the work force during World War I. A great many jobs which had been considered “_____’s work” were being filled by women in the _____, the _____, and the _____. Women plowed the _____, fixed the _____, and delivered the _____.
2. Another way women contributed to the war effort was through _____. They served in the _____, sold _____, and planted _____.
3. The role of women in World War I was a catalyst leading to _____.
4. World War I also created a new role for _____. More than half a million moved to the _____ of the North. They provided the _____ needed to produce wartime goods.
5. Many Blacks were forced to live in crowded _____ housing, contributing to the rise of _____ black _____. Many were denied membership in _____ by white workers.
6. The _____ and _____ tension between white and black workers led to _____ in dozens of northern cities.
7. _____, _____, and _____ for the war were demanded of all Americans. Freedom of _____ and _____ had become unacceptable.

8. Under the _____ and _____ acts, people could be fined and imprisoned for participating in _____ - _____ activities. While Americans fought for _____ in Europe, freedom of _____ and _____ were being denied to Americans at home.
9. The German _____ abdicated (gave up) his throne and escaped to the _____.
10. On the _____ hour of the _____ day in the _____ month of _____, Germany agreed to a _____ - _____ that ended the war.
11. President Wilson's plan for peace after the war is known as his _____. His last point was the most important to him – the formation of a _____ to keep world _____.
12. _____ Prime Minister David Lloyd George and _____ Prime Minister Georges Clemenceau _____ Wilson's ideas. To them, the goal was to _____ Germany so it could never _____ again.
13. The Treaty of Versailles created _____ new nations, including _____, _____, and _____. The borders of other nations were _____.
14. Germany had to pay _____ to the Allies and admit total _____ for the war.
15. Instead of providing a _____, the Treaty of Versailles began laying the groundwork for _____.

You may stop the video after you have answered question 15.